

The Wheel

tuning in to a child's life

The Wheel reminds us to consider a child and their needs, strengths and resources within the context of their family and community.

It helps us to tune in to the important areas of a child's life.

Each of the six areas overlaps and affects the others.